

Recommendations passed down in 2019 in relation to placing greater emphasis on reporting requirements in relation to Gifts and Benefits received/offered, resulted in revised reporting requirements which place clear obligations on all staff to declare all gifts and benefits. These recommendations included the quarterly publication of gifts and benefits that were offered, retained or declined for items below and above $150.

In pursuit of greater integrity and transparency across the QBCC, the quarterly report of 'Reportable Gifts and Benefits' provides a comprehensive view of reportable gifts and benefits offered to the QBCC and its staff.

Quarter 2 2021 identifies a similar number of reportable gifts and benefits to Quarter one the 'Under $150' category as workers across all sectors in Queensland, including the QBCC, continue with greater normalisation of workplaces and operational processes following the high 2020 Covid-19 restrictions on movement and meetings.
