

The Integrity and Complaints Branch of the QBCC undertook an internal audit of the Commission's Gifts and Benefits policy and procedures in 2019. Amongst the recommendations arising from the audit, was that the QBCC would commit to placing a greater emphasis on reporting requirements, as of 1 July 2019. These revised reporting requirements now place a greater obligation on all staff to declare all gifts and benefits and includes quarterly publications of gifts and benefits that were offered, retained or declined for items below and above $150.

In pursuit of greater transparency and integrity across the QBCC, the quarterly report provides a comprehensive view of reportable gifts and benefits offered to the QBCC and its staff.

Quarter 1 2020 has relatively fewer numbers of reportable gifts and benefits in the 'Under $150' category most likely due to the Covid-19 restrictions on movement and meetings.
