

Your Right To Information (RTI)

TO LODGE A RIGHT TO INFORMATION REQUEST, YOU WILL NEED TO SUPPLY:

- An application form
- Fee $49.70 (no fee if it is your own personal information)
- Certified ID if you want your personal information
- Authority to act and certified ID of your representative

THE ASSESSMENT AND DECISION MUST BE MADE WITHIN:

- 25 business days; OR
- 35 business days if other people are involved and their view is required. While a person may object to his/her information being disclosed, the RTI/IP decision maker will make his/her own decision in support or against disclosure.
- Note: documents WILL NOT be released until all appeals are finished.

UNHAPPY WITH THE DECISION?

OPTION 1:

- Lodge a request for external review with the Office of the Information Commissioner.
- Must be within 20 business days from the original decision date.
- There is no set time frame for OIC to make a decision on your appeal.

OPTION 2:

- Lodge a request for internal review (IR)
- Must be within 20 business days from decision date
- RTI Manager MUST give you a decision notice within 20 business days.

STILL UNHAPPY WITH THE DECISION?

- Lodge a request for external review with the Office of the Information Commissioner.
- Must be within 20 business days from the date of the new IR decision.
- There is no set time frame for OIC to make a decision
