BSA/BCITF SUPERSHOWS - Update your building know-how absolutely FREE

Here's your chance to update your building know-how absolutely FREE...and enjoy a day in the company of like minded licensees. Over the next 12 months BSA and the Building and Construction Industry Training Fund (BCITF) will come together to bring you a "big day out" with heaps of entertaining, interesting and informative DVD Video and "live presenter" sessions.

Get the lowdown on new standards and regulations, see demonstrations of best practice methods, and find out how to avoid pitfalls - all in one day over this great range of topics.

- Supervision of Building Work
- Concrete Paths & Driveways
- Subsidence
- Waterproofing
- Plasterboard Installation
- Termite management
- Fire Separating Walls
- Domestic Building Contracts Act
- How to Get Paid Quicker through BCIPA
- Insurable Work

"BSA / BCITF Supershows" are planned to run throughout Queensland over the next 12 months, commencing in Brisbane and extending to all major regional centres.

Good news! If you have not yet attended the Firewall Refresher Program for contractors or certifiers working on multi-dwelling complexes, your attendance at this session will be recorded as completion of BSA's requirements.

A central display and gathering space will allow you to enjoy light refreshments while you network with other attendees. It will also feature Major industry groups who will be available to answer your questions about many aspects of your business.

Please register your attendance by filling out and faxing the RSVP form to 3225 2889(see below for PDF). Spaces are limited so please register early to avoid disappointment. Dates may be altered from time to time.
