BSA Contractor Education Show - helping Gayndah contractors update their building knowledge for FREE!

To improve work standards and help Queenslanders build better, the Building Services Authority (BSA) and Construction Skills Queensland are coming together to bring Gayndah a Contractor Education Show with lots of interesting and informative DVD and live presentations, said BSA's general manager, Ian Jennings.

The next BSA & Construction Skills Queensland Contractor Education Show will be held on Thursday November 22 at the Supper Room, Gayndah Shire Council, 34-36 Capper Street.

Large BSA licensees in the Gayndah region to enjoy a day in the company of like-minded tradespeople and get the low-down on new standards and regulations, see demonstrations of best practice methods, and find out how to avoid building pitfalls, Mr Jennings said.

Presentations cover topics including:

- Supervision of Building Work
- Termites
- Plasterboard
- Concreting . Driveways and Paths
- How to Get Paid Quicker Through the Building and Construction Industry Payments Act 2004 and the Domestic Building Contracts Act

BSA / Construction Skills Queensland Contractor Education Shows and Supershows will run throughout Queensland over the next 12 months.

We have already run a number of shows throughout Queensland with very positive feedback from the tradespeople who attended.

Spaces are limited so be sure to reserve your place early by contacting BSA on 1300 272 272 or visiting the BSA website at www.bsa.qld.gov.au.
