OUR RISKS*

- Service delivery model does not meet stakeholder expectations
- Transformation and change agenda is not embedded
- Information management and ICT security are inadequate
- Financial sustainability is overly dependent on government funding
- Organisational culture does not support a highly engaged, highly motivated and high performing team that feels valued, safe and respected

OUR OPPORTUNITIES*

- Embracing innovative technologies that enhance service efficiency and effectiveness
- Implementing improved strategies to attract, develop and retain our workforce
- Deliver the digital and organisational transformation that enhances services, streamlines processes and optimises ways of working
- Continue collaborating with partners and stakeholders to enhance outcomes

*As part of the QBCC’s annual strategic planning cycle, our risks and opportunities will be revisited in February 2026.

OUR VALUES

We will respect, protect and promote human rights in our decision making and actions.
