BSA's Head Office has relocated

The Building Services Authority (BSA) is now Helping Queenslanders Build Better from a new location.

To enable BSA to provide more extensive services, in September BSA's head office relocated to 299 Montague Rd West End, said BSA general manager Ian Jennings.

"The relocation was necessary to allow BSA to continue to provide more proactive customer service. The new office space was chosen based on its generous space which will give BSA the ability to host industry and consumer functions.

"The south east corner of Queensland is undergoing significant growth which is placing greater demands on the building and construction industry. As the regulator, BSA needed to change to service this growth," Mr Jennings said.

Builders, contractors or homeowners with any building-related question can drop into the new office at 299 Montague Rd, call 1300 BSA BSA (1300 272 272) or visit www.bsa.qld.gov.au.
